INSTRUCTIONAL LEADERSHIP ROADMAP

PRODUCTIVITY

Get Current!

I have well-optimized systems to keep me organized so I can confidently get into classrooms every day, without worrying about my other work

WALKTHROUGHS

Get Into Classrooms!

I visit every classroom every two weeks, and rotate my visits so I see each teacher at different times of day

CONVERSATIONS

Get Into Feedback Conversations!

I differentiate my feedback conversations using the boss (directive), coach (reflective), or leader (reflexive) roles depending on each teacher's needs, always sharing my written evidence immediately

FRAMEWORK

Get Aligned & Specific!

I gather evidence of teacher practice using the language of our instructional framework, and have discipline-specific conversations with each teacher

500 CLASSROOMS

Get Consistent & Impactful!

Teachers and students expect to see me in classrooms, and I can see the impact it's having on students and on teacher practice in specific areas of our instructional framework

HIGH-PERFORMANCE INSTRUCTIONAL LEADERSHIP™

Get Strategic!

I have a clear sense of each teacher's level of performance in specific areas of our instructional framework and how it relates to our school's goals and strategic plan, so I can identify our biggest opportunities for school improvement

Stage	Productivity	Walkthroughs	Conversations	Framework	500 Classrooms	High-Performance Instructional Leadership
Focus	Get Current!	Get Into Classrooms!	Get Into Feedback Conversations!	Get Aligned & Specific!	Get Consistent & Impactful!	Get Strategic!
Level 1	I'm overwhelmed and can't even think about getting into classrooms	I rarely get into classrooms for informal visits, and do only the minimum required formal observations	I give teachers feedback only in the annual evaluation process or when I see something out of the ordinary	I evaluate teachers as satisfactory or unsatisfactory based on my professional judgment	I'm afraid to visit classrooms because I don't know what I'll see, and neither teachers nor students expect to see me	I know only what I see during formal observations, and don't have any sense of teachers' typical practice or how it relates to our school's goals or strategic plan
Level 2	I'm keeping my head above water, but can't get into classrooms consistently	I get into classrooms a few times a week, but I'm inconsistent and don't make it around to everyone	I give teachers written feedback from my informal visits, without having a conversation	I evaluate teachers according to a leveled rubric based on the evidence I've collected	I get into classrooms as I'm able, but I'm often thrown off-track by having to deal with unpleasant surprises; my visits catch teachers and students off-guard	I have a general sense of each teacher's practice, but am unclear how it relates to our school's goals and strategic plan
Level 3	I'm staying on top of my work so I can get into classrooms regularly	I get into three classrooms a day, every day, so I see every teacher on a 2-week rotation	I share my written evidence with the teacher immediately, and have an evidence-based feedback conversation on the spot or soon after my visit	I have regular, evidence-based conversations with teachers using the language of our instructional framework	I visit three classrooms a day, every day, so teachers and students are used to seeing me, and my feedback conversations are having an impact on teacher practice	I have a good sense of each teacher's practice in specific areas and how it relates to our school's goals and strategic plan
Level 4	I have well-optimized systems to keep me organized so I can confidently get into classrooms every day, without worrying about my other work	I visit every classroom every two weeks, and rotate my visits so I see each teacher at different times of day	I differentiate my feedback conversations using the boss (directive), coach (reflective), or leader (reflexive) roles depending on each teacher's needs, always sharing my written evidence immediately	I gather evidence of teacher practice using the language of our instructional framework, and have discipline-specific conversations with each teacher	Teachers and students expect to see me in classrooms, and I can see the impact it's having on students and on teacher practice in specific areas of our instructional framework	I have a clear sense of each teacher's level of performance in specific areas of our instructional framework and how it relates to our school's goals and strategic plan, so I can identify our biggest opportunities for school improvement
